Lead College Program Proposal

	To, The Director TKIET, Warananagar
Name of the College	Dr. J. J. Magdum College of Engineering, Jaysingpur
Date of Event	Proposed Dates - 13 th January 2023
Name	One day Faculty Development Program on "AWS cloud"
Activity Type (Student/Academic/Research/Cultural/ Sports/Other)	Academic
Target Participant	Staff members from CSE, IT, and MCA
Name of the Coordinator	Prof. P. V. Kothawale
Objectives of the Program	Learn the core concepts with live demos on how Cloud Computing is helping organizations to transform their business using cost-effective, scalable and reliable IT architecture while only paying for what they use. Hear real world examples of leading organizations who are using the cloud and what are they using it for. Understand the AWS service portfolio and the global footprint on which it is delivered.
Abstract	With over one million global users and companies like Netflix, Twitch, LinkedIn, Facebook, etc. featuring among the top 10 AWS users (based on EC2 monthly spend), AWS continues to be the prime choice of public cloud adoption for both big and small companies. An increase in the adoption of AWS by organizations has spiked the demand for AWS certified professionals.
