Learning at UNSW from 2023

A vibrant student experience is central to UNSW. With many constraints of the COVID-19 pandemic behind us, we continue to move forward at our campuses with many of our spaces enhanced or refreshed over the last two years. From Term 2 2023 we plan to return to in-person teaching for courses that are best delivered in that mode. This means from Term 2 2023 some courses will no longer offer fully online options. However, an online/hybrid delivery mode may still be a planned aspect of your course or program and in these cases this delivery mode will remain available. Please read our FAQs for more information.
